- 2- 4 Clear figures and pictures in large size.
- 2-5 The conclusions and the results obtained from the research.

3. References:

References should be mentioned sequentially according to their appearance in the text of the research paper using two square brackets ^[] and letter size (12) of Times New Roman Bold Font. Each reference in the list is written using letter size (12) and Times New Roman Bold Font, as follows:

3-1 Periodicals: Author's name, research title, name of periodical, journal number and the year.

3-2 Books: Author's name, title of the book, version, publisher and the year publication.

4. Tables:

Tables should be typed, numbered respectively according to their appearance in the research paper, given the title (on the top) and mentioned sequentially in the text of the research paper using letter size (13) and Arial Bold Font.

5. Figures:

Figures should be drawn clearly in suitable clear size, numbered respectively according to their appearance in the research paper, given clear and accurate titles (in the bottom) and referred to by the same sequence in the text of the research paper using letter size (13) and Arial Bold Font. Any unfitted figure will be neglected.

6. Equations:

Equations should be sequentially numbered according to their appearance in the research paper leaving a margin of (2cm) from the left. The equation number should be placed between two brackets in front of the equation leaving one line between the equation and the preceding and the following text.

7. Photographs:

Photocopies should be presented within the research paper using a scanner. They should represent their contents accurately, numbered and given clear titles in the bottom, as in the point (5) above.
